Wedding Policies

Health Code and Leftover Food

To insure compliance with the Nevada State Health and Safety Food Handling Safety Regulations, Revere Golf Club will be the sole provider of all food served in the facility. In addition, leftover food is not allowed to be removed from the property as it reaches unsafe food temperatures that may put you and your guests at risk for becoming ill. The wedding cake is the only food item that may be removed at the conclusion of the reception.

Service Charge and Tax

All Food and Beverage is subject to prevailing Nevada State sales tax and a 20% service charge

Guest Confirmation

Confirmation of the number of guests for all meal functions is the responsibility of the Client. For pre-determined choices of entrees, Revere Golf Club requires all entrée counts 14 days prior to the wedding date, a detailed guest count per table with entrée selections and client provided place cards with entrée designations and key are also due at this time. These steps ensure our Banquet Service Team is best equipped to provide you and your guests with seamless service. Should you fail to provide the guarantee by the specified date, your original contracted number of guests will be used as the guarantee number. We do not offer tableside choice of entrees or requests pertinent to the “done-ness” of the steak entrees. All guests will receive steak entrees prepared according to Health & Food Safety Regulations (medium-rare).

Personal Items/Wedding Décor

Due to lack of storage, please ensure there is a person designated to collect and remove all décor items, flowers, gifts, and personal matter. This person MUST complete this task the NIGHT OF the wedding. In the event that any wedding items are left at Revere Golf Club's facility for more than 3 days is subject to being discarded. At no point in time is the Golf Club or its employees liable for any missing, broken, damaged, or storage of any client's or guest's belongings.
